

Lansing 9/11 Memorial

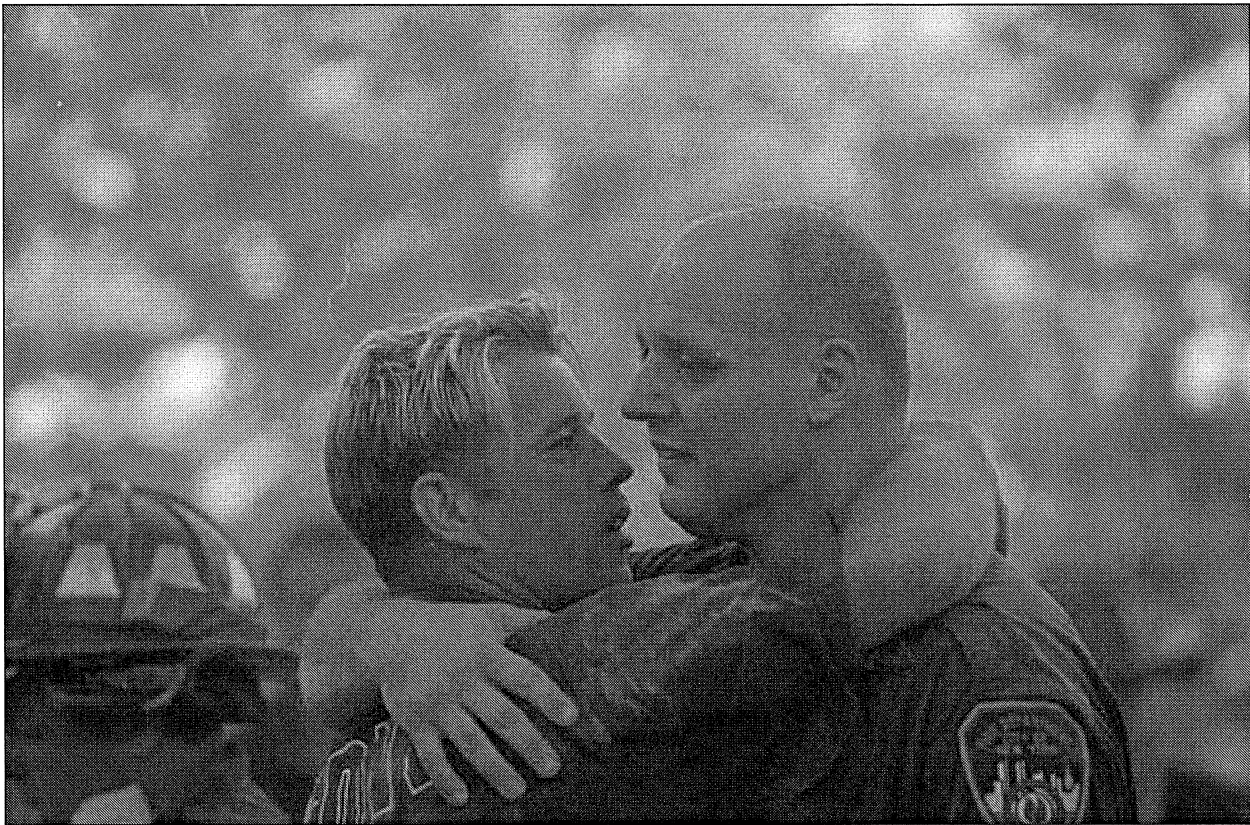

Lansing's 9/11 Memorial in Wentworth Park on the Grand River was dedicated in 2002.

- 1 It was designed and built in one month. On its main face is the City of Lansing Seal, followed by a
- 2 commemorative inscription. On the remaining sides, each has the state seal of one of the 3 states that
- 3 were part of the attack. The state Trees of those three states - a Flowering Dogwood, Eastern Hemlock,
- 4 and Sugar Maple - are positioned on the edge of the memorial on the side of their respective state seal
- 5 (Virginia, Pennsylvania, and New York respectively). The steel is a 10 foot high. Lansing was the
- 6 137th of 150 cities to get the steel.

From <http://web.archive.org/web/20080829202533/http://911memorials.org/usa/archives/2005/11/24/lansing-911-memorial-in-wentworth-park/>

Appendix 15c1

Go to <http://makehistory.national911memorial.org/photos/38173>

The caption:

Out of the 1200 pictures photographer Ron Agam took at Ground Zero in New York City on 9/11/2001, he was most affected by this picture of these two firefighters. Lenny Terrell had just emerged from a cloud of dust “like an angel.” Lenny went to fellow firefighter, Leon Maraskaj, and they embraced. The photographer thought to himself, “This is what America is all about—the courage and this feeling of pride and brotherhood.”

Appendix 16